

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BINKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it." Dr. W. M. WATSON, 1216 Third Street, Cincinnati, O., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

ANOTHER BIG B. &amp; O. DEAL

THIS TIME IT IS THE RAILROAD THAT IS INVOLVED.

A Drexel-Morgan Syndicate Buys Its Control for Ten Million Dollars—Rumors That the Telegraph Company Will Soon Fall Into Jay Gould's Hands.

New York, Sept. 5.—The great Baltimore & Ohio deal, after all the gossip of weeks, is about consummated, and is the greatest deal in importance since the formation of the Reading syndicate to recognize the West Shore after its settlement with the New York Central. Edward Lauterbach, ex-Governor Hoadley's law partner, figured in the West Shore matter and also is prominent in the Baltimore & Ohio deal, in each case acting as mediator between Drexel, Morgan & Co., who carried through the deals, and the other side.

A preliminary contract was executed Friday by which a syndicate composed of J. S. Morgan & Co., Baring Bros. & Co., Brown, Shipley & Co. of London, Drexel, Morgan & Co., Kidder, Peabody & Co., Brown Bros. & Co. of this city, and Drexel & Co. of Philadelphia, take the B. & O. railroad, and are to place it in competent hands for management. The new management has not yet been announced, but probably A. J. Cassett, the vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad company, will succeed Mr. Garrett as president of the Baltimore & Ohio. The syndicate will contract with the roads running north from Philadelphia, and with all lines entering New York from the west, by which will be insured perfect harmony between the Baltimore & Ohio and roads hitherto antagonistic. Work on the Baltimore & Ohio lines between Philadelphia and New York and work on Staten Island will be stopped. In consideration of these contracts being signed, and with the control in their hands the syndicate agree to relieve the railroad from its present embarrassment by providing $10,000,000 with which to take up the floating debt. This will be represented by $5,000,000 in Baltimore & Ohio consolidated five and $5,000,000 preferred stock. The floating debt as it stands amounts to $7,000,000, mostly in the shape of certificates of indebtedness, scrip and notes. Of this amount $4,000,000 is said to have matured on the 1st instant.

One of the interested parties said to a reporter:

"All the outside enterprises will be sold to parties to whom they will be valuable. The Western Union will control, if it does not buy, the telegraph lines; and the Pullman Palace Car company will take the sleeping car business. The express business has already gone to the United States Express company. The affairs of the railroad company will be entirely reorganized and placed upon a sound financial basis."

The Times says that technically the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph company has not yet passed out of the control of the railroad but as a business fact it is already Jay Gould's.

Confirmed from Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 5.—William F. Burns, president pro tem. of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, confirms the statement that the Baltimore & Ohio has passed into the hands of the Drexel, Morgan & Co. syndicate. The American says editorially to-day:

"The terms of the contract, which is a practical mortgage on the road, open the eyes of the people to the financial condition of the company. It discloses a floating debt of $7,000,000, and shows that the Baltimore & Ohio was very hard pushed for money. The contract, while it endures, puts the Baltimore & Ohio virtually at the mercy of the Pennsylvania road, and suspends all its work on new lines.

"It is quite apparent that the enterprise which dragged the company down was its telegraph system. Before this system was pushed the road was prosperous. Since then its financial condition has gradually become worse, and the large expense of the new Philadelphia road did not mend the situation. The present effect of the contract is to keep the Baltimore & Ohio down to its present term. The most radical change is the dethronement of President Garrett."

GERMAN SOLDIERS' REUNITE.

Interesting Meeting of Veterans at Chicago To-Day.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Flags are flying from thousands of residences and business houses in the German sections of the city this morning in honor of the opening day of the annual convention, feast and picnic of the German soldiers. Those who participate on this interesting occasion are members of a number of societies that have united together for this purpose. The membership is confined to ex-soldiers who have been honorably discharged from the German army, and who have pledged themselves to become good citizens of the United States and to devote themselves to the defense of the constitution and the upholding of the laws of this country.

The annual reunions are very similar to those of the Grand Army of the Republic. There are three local societies in this city and others in Cincinnati, Hamilton, Cleveland, St. Louis, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Detroit, Kansas City, Denver, San Francisco, Baltimore and Fort Wayne; all of them will be represented upon the present occasion.

Where Is McNeely?

SACO, Me., Sept. 5.—There are no new developments in the bank robbery case. Harry McNeely, brother of the missing clerk, arrived from Montreal yesterday, and had a consultation with the bank officers and the detectives at work upon the case. He is of the opinion that the absconding clerk did not go to Montreal, but is somewhere in New England, and will be captured within a few days. Two private drawers in the office desk belonging to McNeely have been opened in the hope of finding some clue that would lead to his capture. Their contents are not known except to the bank officers.

Alleged Attempt at Train Wrecking.

CHATTERTON, Ill., Sept. 5.—An attempt was made to wreck the evening passenger train on the Illinois Central railroad yesterday evening by some miscreants placing a rail across the track at a point one-half mile south of this station, in a cut and on a curve.

DEATH OF BISHOP HARRIS.

End of a Noted Life, Which was Devoted Almost Entirely to Religion.

New York, Sept. 5.—Bishop W. L. Harris, the resident bishop of the Methodist church, died yesterday afternoon at 5:30. During the last three days of his sickness he was "unconscious" and surrounded by members of his family. Wm. L. Harris, D.D., LL.D., was one of the bishops of the M. E. church, and was born near Mansfield, O., November 14, 1817. He was converted and joined the church at a camp-meeting in Ohio, June 10, 1834. After an elementary education he entered Norwalk seminary, where he remained two years, studying ancient languages and mathematics. He was licensed to preach in 1836, and was employed as a preaching elder on Wellington circuit. In 1837 he was admitted to the Michigan conference, and was successively appointed to Dover and Worcester circuits, and to Mansfield. In 1840 he became a member of the Northern conference of Ohio, and was appointed to Bellevue, Amity, Chester, and in 1844 and 1845 he accepted a trusteeship in the Ohio Wesleyan university, but soon returned to pastoral work. In 1848 he accepted the principalship of Baldwin institute, now Baldwin university, where he remained three years.

In 1851 he returned to Delaware and took charge of the academic department of the university. In 1852 he was elected to the chair of chemistry, which he held for eight years, teaching also classes in the Hebrew language. In 1860 he was elected by the general conference as assistant corresponding secretary of the Missionary society, which position he filled until 1877, when he was elected bishop. In this office he has traveled extensively in the United States, and visited the missions in Japan, China, India, Turkey, Italy, Switzerland, Germany and Scandinavia. This journey occupied eighteen months. He was a member of the general conference from 1856 to 1872, and served as secretary of every session, having been re-elected without opposition. In 1874 he was sent as a delegate to the British Wesleyan conference, and was at the same time accredited by the American Bible society to attend the British and Foreign Bible society in London. He received the degree of D. D. from Allegheny college in 1856, and that of LL. D. in 1870 from Baldwin university. He has published a small volume on the Powers of the General Conference.

Arrangements for the funeral of the late Bishop Harris have not yet been completed. The time for burial will probably be 2 o'clock Monday.

The Chatsworth Victims Increasing.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 5.—A railroad man in this city says that from statements made by one of the Toledo, Peoria & Western company's employees, who worked at the Chatsworth wreck night and day, until it was cleared away, he is convinced that 120 persons lost their lives at that place. This railroad employee says he personally knew of that number of bodies being taken out dead, which were shipped away to various parts of the country as rapidly as possible. This evidence is corroborated by the statements of residents of Peoria visiting here. They say that a number of young men went out to the scene of the wreck on the first relief train and remained all day. They stated that 110 bodies had been taken out up to the time they left, and it was believed that several more had been entirely consumed in the wreck.

Effect of the Wheat Deal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—There were all sorts of rumors on the street here yesterday regarding the method adopted by the Nevada bank to recoup its terrible wheat deal losses, which probably approach $12,000,000. Certain capitalists are now raising money to invest in stocks, and the papers hint strongly at a manipulation of the market. The break between the Floods and Fair is notorious; still young James Flood visited Fair three times this week, and each time had a long and secret interview with him. Whether this means a pool between Flood, Fair and Mackay, it is impossible to ascertain. It will be remembered that young Flood, with Mackay, cleared $4,000,000 last November in a stock deal. Possibly this method is to be repeated as the quickest and safest way of reimbursing their late losses.

German Printers Strike.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The entire force of the Volks Zeitung press room struck work this morning. The cause of the strike was the discharge of D. F. Headman, one of their number, whom the management claimed was not competent to run the new press which has recently been put up in the press room. Mr. Headman has been a pressman for forty years, and the other employees say he is able to run any kind of a press. Mr. Rockwell, one of the strikers, said this morning that the act was the outcome of the recent excommunication of the Socialists from the George party. "The pressmen," said Mr. Rockwell, "while not German men are in sympathy with the movement of the party."

An Irreparable Fire Loss.

ST. MEINROD, Ind., Sept. 5.—The magnificent abbey and Catholic college at this place was totally destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The loss will not fall short of $200,000, including a library of 15,000 volumes and the museum of rare collections that can never be replaced. The school had just been repaired, and was to open next Monday. The school term, postponed until the 19th inst., will be held in the former convent at Ferdinand until a new building can be erected on the site of the old. Work on the same will commence at once.

Unknown Man Burned to Death.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—A group of old wooden buildings on Ashton Place, occupied as stables, were burned early this morning. An unknown man who had probably been sleeping in the hay loft of one of the buildings was burned to death, and his body was so disfigured that identification was impossible. Several horses perished. Loss, $3,000; no insurance.

Gone to Shoot the Rapids.

ROUND ISLAND, N. Y., Sept. 5.—The members of the Library association left this morning on an excursion. They will shoot the rapids and reach Montreal to-night. Sunday will be spent in that city. From there they will go to Quebec, Halifax and Boston, making short stays at the places mentioned. Next year's meeting will be held in St. Louis in October.

GATHERING OF DOCTORS.

PREPARING FOR THE OPENING OF THE MEDICAL CONGRESS.

The Preliminary Work of Taking Care of the Three Thousand Doctors—Ocean Weather Forecasts—Our Consul at Tahiti Resigns—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The preliminary work of taking care of 3,000 doctors began this morning at Willard's hall. The place reminded one of a voting precinct. Printed placards were suspended on the walls indicating where the delegates were to register their names. So great is the number expected that seven different places have been arranged for the convenience of the representatives of the medical profession.

Over one thousand names have been registered through letters sent to the registrar, Dr. Toner. The hotel proprietors say that the demand for rooms is greater even than during inauguration week in 1855. Cots that were then put away to rest for four years have been taken down to meet the overflow of guests.

Dr. N. S. Davis, of Chicago, who is to preside over the great congress, is here, and he was a conspicuous figure at the Riggs house to-day. He is a handsome old gentleman, and reminds one of pictures of Gladstone. He is tall, spare and of a dignified bearing, and wears a swallow tail coat.

The program of the congress is a neat little pamphlet of 100 pages. The index contains the names of the six hundred gentlemen who are to take part in the proceedings. A careful examination of the addresses of the authors of the papers shows how thoroughly international the congress will be. Every country of Europe, Egypt, Algeria, Syria, China, Japan, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, the Canary Islands, Australia, New Zealand, Mexico and Canada are represented, even on this list, while every country on the face of the earth that has any pretence to civilization will be represented in the congress.

It is also equally National in the distribution of the honors. Every state, except New Hampshire, Mississippi and Nevada will have contributors to the great volumes of papers that are to be published by the congress of its proceedings. Stenographers who can report French and German have been brought from Canada and New York, while Washington furnishes the crops of reporters who are to report the discussions in English before the eighteen sections.

It is estimated that the proceedings will fill four large books. Each delegate is to receive one set.

New York city and state will be honorably represented before the sections by Drs. Lewis H. and Lewis A. Sayre, Spitzka, Edison, Sims, Stevens, Taylor, Roberts and a host of others. Dakota is the only one of the territories that contributes a paper for the proceedings.

Our Consul at Tahiti.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Private advice from Tahiti, the chief capital of the Society Islands, state that Dorrance Atwater, for many years United States consul at that point, has tendered his resignation, to take effect upon the appointment of his successor. Mr. Atwater is a protégé of Clara Barton, the philanthropist, through whose influence the appointment was secured. Mr. Atwater is married to a native princess who is said to possess, in addition to great wealth and beauty, a finely cultivated mind. It is expected that congress will this year raise the salary at Tahiti to $2,000 per annum.

Imported Articles for Exhibition.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The treasury department has issued a circular to collectors and other customs officers, calling attention to the fact that animals and other articles imported for special temporary purposes such as racing exhibitions and for use as models, etc., are admitted free of duty, provided that bond is given that they will be exported within six months.

Ocean Weather Forecasts.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Chief Signal Officer A. W. Greely will sail for Europe on the 10th inst. He will remain abroad about six weeks. He will visit Paris during his absence and confer with M. Mascart, the director of the French meteorological office with reference to the weather cables which are sent nightly from America to France.

The American Party.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The convention of the American party which occurs at Philadelphia on the 16th is attracting much attention, as politicians are anxious to know which of the old parties will suffer most. The American party will issue a weekly organ in New York.

The Fidelity Grand Jury.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 5.—A few minutes after noon to-day Gen. R. R. Cowen, clerk of the United States courts; Jury Commissioner Theodore Cook and Deputy Clerk Robert C. Georger completed the drawing of the United States grand jury that will attend to the cases of E. L. Harper, Josie Holmes, Ben Hopkins and Ammi Baldwin. Judge Sage has given instructions to the effect that the names be withheld from the press. This will prevent the jurymen from being "seen."

Ignoring the Saturday Half Holiday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Business men generally are opposed to observing the Saturday half holiday and many of them declared to a United Press reporter to-day that it would be utterly ignored by them after to-day. They say it is impossible to estimate the injury to their business that would result from a continuance of the Saturday half holiday during the fall and winter months.

Hope for the Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—The attorneys for the convicted bootlers claim to have made a startling discovery of vital error in the recent trial, totally invalidating the findings. One of the lawyers said yesterday that it was nothing less than that the Illinois conspiracy statute was illegal. This is the law under which the Anarchists as well as the bootlers were convicted.

A Broken Rail Tumbles Four Cars.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Sept. 5.—A broken rail caused four cars to tumble from the trestle on the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo railroad this morning.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Benjamin Martin and Her Little Child Burned to Death.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 5.—Mrs. Benjamin Martin, of the third story of 75 Clay street, was preparing supper Friday evening upon an ordinary coal-oil stove, which was set upon a sheet of paper to protect the floor from any oil which might drip. Her two-year old daughter was playing on the floor, and while the mother was preoccupied with her work suddenly caught hold of the paper under the stove and gave it a pull. In an instant the stove was overturned, exploded and blew the inflammable fluid all over the child. Quicker than it takes to tell it the child was a monument of flame. The mother turned, and taking in the terrible situation at a glance, tried to quench the flames. Her husband, who at that moment arrived home from work, ran in and tore the burning clothing from the child.

Mrs. Martin's dress had caught fire from the little one, and she ran shrieking down stairs. Her rapid flight fanned the flames, and when she reached the next floor below she was all in a blaze. Mrs. Con. Keating, who lives on that floor, threw a bucket of water over her, but the flames were not extinguished until some men wrapped their coats about the woman. She was carried upstairs, where her husband, after putting out the fire which had caught upon the carpet, was attending the dying little one. The latter inhaled the flames, its feet were burned off, and it died about 9 p. m. Mrs. Martin was terribly burned about the back and shoulders, and her limbs and stomach were badly scorched. She also inhaled some of the flames. She lingered in terrible agony all night, and died early this morning.

Killed by a Broken Neck.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 5.—James Miller, who was killed by breaking his neck at the Cortland hotel, Chicago, on Wednesday, was once a wealthy dry goods merchant of Glasgow and a large stockholder in the Bank of Scotland, the failure of which stripped him of his wealth. He came to America to retrieve his fortune and began by peddling soap in this city. He was making good headway when he met his death.

Tale of a Would-Be Ravisher.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Sept. 5.—News was received here this morning of the lynching of Charles Coleman, colored, at Flemingsburg, last night for the attempted rape last Sunday night on Mrs. Dingwood and Miss Sweeney, at Bald Hill Fleming county.

Preferred Death to Dishonor.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 5.—The experience of Mary Sylvester, who came to Minneapolis from Puge's hotel at Excelsior, seeking employment, confirms the assertion that there are men in this city whose necks would look better adorned with hemp than with a white collar. Miss Sylvester, a pretty country girl of nineteen years, entirely unused to life in the city, arrived in Minneapolis and applied for work at the intelligence office, No. 317 Hennepin avenue. Mr. Murray, of the intelligence office, made her his clerk, took her to the dime museum in the evening and on pretense of finding her a boarding house took her into a dive where he tried to assault her. Becoming desperate she jumped through an open window thirty-five feet to the ground, breaking her left jaw and all the ribs on her left side. She is internally injured and cannot live. Excitement is running high and there are fears of lynching.

Children Cremated.

WOOLWORTH, Tex., Sept. 5.—The house of Perry Buchanan was burned yesterday with contents. One girl about five years old was burned to death; another about three years old cannot possibly live; one about ten years old may possibly recover. Mrs. Buchanan had her arms burned to the elbows. The ten-year-old child was out in the yard, out of all danger, but looking back, she saw the flames surround her little three-year-old sister and ran back to the fire and brought her out, suffering the penalty of being almost burned to death for her bravery. The fire originated from the cook stove.

Tannery Burned to the Ground.

MONTREAL, Can., Sept. 5.—Moseley's tannery at St. John was burned to the ground this morning, and is a total loss. It was insured for $1,000,000.

Temporary Injunction Dissolved.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Judge Donahue today denied the application of Manager Hayden for a permanent injunction restraining Actor Thomas R. Eagleston from playing under the name of Thomas W. Keene, and has also dissolved the temporary injunction.

The G. A. R. and the Flag.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 5.—The Orrin J. Crane post, G. A. R., one of the largest in the state, has passed resolutions condemning all action tending to draw the organization into politics, and all demonstrations of disrespect towards the president.

Secretary Lamar to Leave the Cabinet.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—It was announced here last evening that Ex-Governor Patterson was to be appointed secretary of the interior, and that Secretary Lamar will be appointed to the vacant place on the supreme court bench.

An Actress Died.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—Mrs. Vincent, leading lady of the Boston museum for the last twenty-five years, is dying. She had a stroke of apoplexy yesterday, and has not regained consciousness since.

FOR SAFE KEEPING.

Two Alleged Rapists From Fleming County Lodged in Jail to Prevent Another Lynching.

Sheriff Kendall and Deputy Samuels, of Fleming County, arrived late last Saturday evening and lodged Elihu Grant Pugh and Robert Pugh in jail for safe keeping. The Pughs are charged with the crime of rape, committed some weeks ago upon the person of Fannie Bernice, near Muses Mills, Fleming County. There has been strong talk of lynching the prisoners every since their arrest. The mobbing of the negro Coleman at that place last Friday night only increased the talk, and the relatives of the prisoners importuned the Fleming authorities Saturday to send the accused out of the county until the excitement subsided. Acting upon this, the County Judge ordered them to the jail at this place and they were accordingly brought down.

They were seen yesterday by a representative of the BULLETIN, and talked readily of the charge against them, but in a rambling, disconnected manner. Elihu is about twenty-four years old and his brother Robert about twenty-two. Both are married. They say some of their enemies are at the bottom of the prosecution. They had not recovered from their scare of Friday night, caused by the lynching of Coleman. During part of the conversation with the BULLETIN man, they talked in whispers, and it was evident they were still badly frightened.

ONE of the busiest men on the Kentucky Central Railroad now is Conductor J. H. Myers. He leaves this city on the morning run, goes to Paris and there takes the train from Richmond back to this city, and returns with it to Paris in the afternoon, and then takes his old run home, making the round trip to Paris twice a day. It gives him about sixty miles a day more running than under the old system.

Particulars of the Lynching at Flemingsburg.

Further particulars of the lynching at Flemingsburg Friday night were learned yesterday from Sheriff Kenfall and Deputy Sheriff Samuels.

The crowd numbered about two hundred. They entered the town about 1 o'clock Saturday morning. All wore masks. Persons unmasked were warned away and kept at distance. Reaching the jail the outer door was battered down. Coleman seemed to be the only one they were looking for, and his cell was soon found. A few blows from a sledge hammer smashed the lock and the lynchers had their victim within their grasp. A railroad trestle a few hundred yards away was soon reached, a rope was attached and Coleman was swung off into eternity.

Everything was conducted in a quiet manner. A string band was along, we understand, and when the jail was reached, "Home, Sweet Home" was rendered.

Coleman wouldn't talk, maintaining a stolid indifference throughout. About one hundred of the crowd reached Flemingsburg by the Maysville pike, and it is thought they were from the neighborhood where the young lady—Coleman's intended victim—lives, near Helena.

Weddington Won the Case.

Colonel Frank S. Owens, of the firm of Owens & Barkley, makes frequent trips through Eastern Kentucky in the interest of his house. He has a host of friends who are always glad to welcome him, and when they get together it is the occasion of some rich stories generally gotten off at the expense of some one of the crowd. Not long ago, Colonel Owens heard the following on Bob Weddington, and it is given as an actual fact.

Weddington is one of the best known lawyers in the Big Sandy Valley. He has an extensive practice in all that country, and when he gets up to address a jury he always has a crowd of listeners. On a certain occasion Weddington was defending a suit for a poor devil brought against him by Richard A. Terrel, the richest man in the Sandy Valley. When Weddington came to address the jury, he opened up like this: "Gentlemen of the jury, you should know who these parties are. Here is Richard A. Terrel, the very richest man in the Sandy Valley—from source to head, this man is the plaintiff. He has built himself a house here at Pikeville finer than you or I ever saw. It has a bay window in it as big as this court house, and plate glass as big as a barn door and as thick as your finger, and this minute, gentlemen of the jury, he has timber enough in the Sandy river to build the United States navy or pontoon the Atlantic ocean. But I ask, gentlemen of the jury, who, I say who, is my client? Gentlemen of the jury, you see him there with a head on him about the size of a shirt stud, and about the sun and substance of his earthly possessions is a chicken coop on a hill-side, a one-horned cow weighing about two hundred and fifty pounds, a hip-shot mule with one eye, four boar pigs, and an ash-hopper."

Approaching Nuptials.

The Presbyterian Church at Washington will be the scene of a matrimonial event next Wednesday that has been looked forward to for some time. It is the marriage of Dr. G. M. Phillips, of this city, and Miss Hattie L. Cutter, of Washington. The license was issued this morning.

Bourbon Fair.

The semi-centennial fair of the Bourbon Agricultural Society—the oldest in the State—will commence to-morrow at Paris and close next Saturday. During the fair, the Kentucky Central will sell round trip tickets at all stations at greatly reduced rates. Passengers from Maysville can attend the fair and return home the same day, on the regular trains.

Bourbon and Fayette United.

Mr. Charles Ferris, of Fayette County, and Miss Laura Hearn, of Bourbon County, were married by Squire Beasley last Saturday evening. Like all runaway marriages it was attended by a bit of romance. They had been lovers for two years, but the match was objected to by the young lady's parents. Last Saturday the couple had arranged to go to a picnic together and from there come to Aberdeen. Their plans succeeded, and the renowned Squire has added another happy couple to his already long list. The party was accompanied by Aberdeen by G. W. Oldham and a party of young ladies and gentlemen who were boating on the river.

NEVER MIND.

If the world don't go to suit you,
 Why repulse the matter,
 Friend of mine?
 Take life easy; it is better,
 You will find,
 Take no trouble, laugh it off and
 Never mind.
 Eat your hard crust easy-hearted,
 With a jest.
 Frowns nor tears will help the matter—
 Let it rest.
 Troubles will not come so thickly,
 You will find,
 If unlooked for; laugh them off and
 Never mind.

OBITUARY.

Miss Margaret Crow daughter of Mr. Michael and Mrs. Ann Crow, died August 28th at the home of her parents on Grant street after an illness of one week. She was 25 years of age and was a young lady of many noble qualities, charitable, amiable, affable, a young lady that had a large circle of friends. She was an obedient and faithful daughter. Her sufferings were intense but she bore them to the last with christian fortitude. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Washington the 29th of August after services at St. Patrick's church.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

R. G. DUN & COMPANY'S REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF BUSINESS.

Effects of the Sale of the Baltimore & Ohio Upon the Stock Market—Wheat Crop Report Unchanged—Drouth Injury—Business Failures for the Week.

New York, Sept. 5.—R. G. Dun & Co., in their weekly review of trade, say: Joyful rallies in the market for the moment hide the effects of failures and frands in rather unusual number. The sale of the Baltimore & Ohio Express company supplies cash for some time to come, but does not involve adjustment of other interests, as the street imagines. The sale of valuable securities by the Oregon Transcontinental probably looks to a change in the management of that and connected companies, rather than to general liquidation. But all these and other changes do not remove the difficulties which excessive speculation has caused.

Reviving confidence in this market appears to have for its chief basis a belief that heavy operators want prices higher, rather than well founded assurance of a change in the condition of properties or of business.

Crop reports are unchanged as to wheat, still conflicting as to corn, and decided more unfavorable as to cotton, the injury in the Memphis district being reported at 41 per cent. in Tennessee, and from 35 to 38 per cent. in adjacent parts of Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas. New Orleans also reports prospects declining week by week. In some parts of the northwest corn was materially helped by rains, in others seriously at all. Trade reports are uniformly encouraging, while fair collections at all points heard from, and a generally improved outlook for trade. Money is stringent and in brisk demand at some points, but generally in fair supply.

The boot and shoe trade is better, with more satisfactory orders from regions of drouth than were expected. Dry goods reports show improvement, with fair movement in light woolsens, though the demand does not yet start much of the idle machinery. Wool remains dull, the unloading of western speculators having come sooner than was expected. Failures in the iron and coal trades have a discouraging tendency. Large offers of southern iron are reported without bidders, but prices for the best grades are not changed. The business failures throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 175, for Canada 24, total 199, compared with 143 last week and 190 for the corresponding week of last year.

Sir John Macdonald's Mad.

New York, Sept. 5.—As a result of the appointment of the fisheries commission by the British Government, to settle the fishery dispute between Canada and the United States without consulting the Dominion authorities, it is stated in the highest official circles that it is Sir John Macdonald's intention to repudiate and ignore any decision that may be arrived at owing to the fact that neither he or his cabinet are indicated in the interview with the minister of fisheries yesterday. Indications are that there is trouble brewing. It is likely to culminate in some sort of a rupture between Great Britain and his largest colony.

Red River Railroad Troubles.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 5.—Some uneasiness has been caused by a report that some rails for the Red River railroad were detained at Montreal under a lien of one of the banks. The financial difficulty, however, rests with the contractor and will be removed by the 10th inst. Although Sir John Macdonald has emphatically denied the statement attributed to him, that he would send government troops here to prevent the completion of the road, it is generally accepted that the most strenuous opposition will be forthcoming from the Federal government.

New Trial Denied.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—Judge Nelson, of the United States district court, has denied the defendant's motion for a new trial in the case of Davis F. Winter, against the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railroad company. The defendant was ejected from a car of the defendant company in 1882, although presenting a ticket good to his place of destination, but on which he had stopped over at an intermediate station. He was awarded a verdict of $10,000 damages in June last.

Pittsburg Trade Display.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 5.—The trades' display witnessed here to-day was the grandest street parade ever held in Pittsburg. Twenty-two thousand members of the various organizations in Western Pennsylvania were in line, while the streets were crowded with visitors from neighboring towns. The route of march was very lengthy, traversing streets in both this and Allegheny City.

Ohio Yacht Club.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 5.—In the Ohio Yacht club's regatta here yesterday the Fanchon, the champion of the lakes, won in thesecond class easily. The Scud and Kate Grubham followed her in order. In the third class, the Pearl won, Reynolds, of Monroe, Mich. second. The day was wet and dreary, with a light and variable wind, and the race was devoid of special interest.

Death of a Navy Officer.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Commodore McCann, commanding the Boston navy yard, reports to the navy department the death of Rear Admiral Theodore R. Green at Jaffray, N. H., on August 30. Rear Admiral Green was on the retired list.

Lumber Merchant Arrested.

PERU, Ind., Sept. 5.—J. C. Rankin, the lumber merchant of Bunker Hill, who forged notes upon the First National bank of this city for $1,000,000 was arrested at his place of concealment and lodged in jail here this morning.

Congressman Dying With Consumption. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Congressman Nicholas T. Kane, of the Albany district, is dying of consumption at his home in West Troy. His physicians have announced that he cannot live at the farthest over two or three days.

The Peru Forger Jailed.

PERU, Ind., Sept. 5.—J. C. Rankin, the lumber merchant of Bunker Hill, who forged notes upon the First National bank of this city for $1,000,000 was arrested at his place of concealment and lodged in jail here this morning.

Drive-Well Troubles.

BAYAR, O., Sept. 5.—The drive-well men are here. Several have paid $10, but a greater part will stand out. A large number of farmers near here have organized and say they will take the matter to the

The stock market this morning was very active, 2,200 shares changing hands up to noon. Nearly every stock in the list participated in the activity. The tone of speculation was very strong during the greater part of the morning and prices closed at or near the best prices. The opening figures were generally 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. higher than they closed last night with the greatest advance in Reading and Richmond Terminal. In the first ten minutes there was a run to buy stocks and prices went up at a rapid rate. Reading advanced 3/4 per cent. Richmond and Terminal and Jersey Central 3 per cent. each, and the rest of the list 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. From this extreme advance there was a reaction of 1/4 to 3/4 per cent. by 11:30 a. m. led by New England and Reading, but the market steadily strengthened from that hour to the close of business. The bank statement made public about 11:30 showed an increase of $47,000 in the surplus reserve helped to stimulate the advance. On the whole the market was the strongest thus far this year. The closing prices were 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. higher than those of yesterday:
